DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 5, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claims 5-8 contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The present application disclose a phone number look-up device comprises:

memory for storing server phone numbers based on location;
a communication device for receiving the request from the computer device; and a processor for retrieving a server phone number from the memory based on the received request.

The examiner does not understand how can a phone number lookup comprises the above devices.
